AOP VENTOUX DOMAINE DE JU WHITE

Julien Cornud the winegrower is also a botanist and loves his terroir. His vineyards are located in Caromb, a small village at the foothill of Mont Ventoux. His vineyard has the particularity to contain pieces of flint and for that reason Julien Cornud used to joke he could make a very nice Sauvignon Blanc like in the Loire region.

TERROIR

Clay and silicious with pieces of flint like in the Loire region.

GRAPE VARIETIES

Roussane 80%, Clairette 20%

WINEMAKING

Destalking, pressing. Fermentation at low temperature 12 to 14° C for 10 days in stainless steel. No malolactic fermentation to preserve a maximum of freshness.

TASTING NOTES

This wine has a beautiful golden color. The nose is intense and complex with notes of pear, white flowers and herbal tea. The palate is well balanced with freshness, roundness with a good length.

TASTING ADVICES

Can be kept from 1 to 3 years.

FOOD PAIRINGS

It should be served chilled as an aperitif or with seafood such as grilled salmon fillets, crabcakes or pan seared scallops. It will also perfectly match goat cheese
